Target Image
(to be populated with pixel values)

Source Image
(to be sampled from for populating Target)

1) The target image pixel is projected to its corresponding coordinate in the source image.

p_t

p_s

2) Take the weighted average of the 4 nearest pixels.

3) This average pixel value is used to populate the reconstructed image at coordinate p_t.